Worth Seeing

In our King street window to-morrow will be an exhibit of Bird Homes, made by the manual training boys of the Normal and Caroline Street Schools. This is one of the most interesting exhibits you could imagine. Everyone should see it.

Save the Birds

It is a most commendable feature of the Horticultural Society, and the manual training section of the Normal and Caroline Schools to interest the boys in bird life and encourage them in the protection of wild birds. See the exhibit of bird houses at this store to-morrow.

SKIRT FIVE YARDS WIDE

The particular charm of this frock is in its soft gracefulness. The skirt just to prove its modishness developed a width of over five yards. Odd black and yellow buttons that harmonize with the yellow tone of the gown, trim the graceful bodies.

THREE HEAVY ASSAULTS UPON VERDUN REPULSED

German Infantry Again Tried Yesterday, But Met Frightful Losses.
Meanwhile French Have Gained in Caillette Wood and the Vosges.

London, April 4.—The French line north of Verdun blocked to-day a north and westwardly-planned attack of the Germans to break through in the Douaumont sector. The assault, made at 3 o'clock this afternoon, on the first-line French trenches 300 metres south of Douaumont village, was completely repulsed and the Germans were thrown back with heavy losses.

Large forces were used in the attack, which was made in the wave formation which has been used so persistently by the Germans in these rushes. Early in the day the German heavy guns, which had decreased their fire, took up the bombardment against the enemy with great violence, preparatory to the advance of the infantry.

As the Germans climbed out of their trenches of the assault the French fire curtain was lowered and the German lines, pressing forward toward the trenches protected by this fire, were cut down one after another until the remnants of the organization on the field fell back in disorder to the Chaufour woods. The attacking forces were pursued by the French artillery fire as they fell back and suffered considerable losses.

A German attack also was made this afternoon against the village of Hancourt, just south of Manancourt. This attack, also, the French War Office says, was completely repulsed.

While the two German attacks, one on each side of the river, were being repulsed, the French announced that their own counter-attacks in the Bois Chaillette, gained by the Germans, had made progress. The counter-attacks, which yesterday had cleared the Bois Chaillette, gained by the Germans, had made progress. The counter-attacks, which yesterday had cleared the Bois Chaillette, gained by the Germans, had made progress.

For more than a week the battle has been continuous about the hills of the Bois Chaillette, and a disorganized and exhausted German force has been driven back to the original position. It is as though the whole of the German line had been broken up and the Germans had been driven back to the original position.

Notwithstanding that the situation west of the Meuse is still critical, the French are more sanguine of General Petain's defense. The strength of the French counter-attacks has inspired fresh confidence.

The chief item of expenditure upon current account is that, owing with some delay, the Government has decided to increase the expenditure before the war was usually made, and the balance of the account for 1915 it will be only $15,000,000. The Government is asking for $15,000,000 more for 1916, and the Government is asking for $15,000,000 more for 1916, and the Government is asking for $15,000,000 more for 1916.

For several years the Government has been in the habit of estimating the expenditure for the current year, and the Government has been in the habit of estimating the expenditure for the current year, and the Government has been in the habit of estimating the expenditure for the current year.

GOING AFTER THE BIG CAMP

Works Committee Ready to Fix Up Site.
Wants Hard Coal Used in Centre of City.

The quick introduction of a water service to the McKittrick land in West Hamilton or Rosedale Survey in the east to ease the militia authorities at Ottawa, decide to locate a summer camp here for 8,000 troops at either of these places, was an issue before the board of works last evening, when the first regular meeting was held under the control of the newly-elected vice-chairman, Ald. J. H. Hodgson, who is assuming charge of the committee's affairs during the illness of the chairman, Ald. R. M. Roy, Ald. J. W. Tyrrell explained that he had just been talking to Col. S. C. Newburn, who urged Hamilton to get busy at once if it wanted the soldiers here. Hamilton was informed of what the Ambulance City was ready to do. Discussion on this took place along with consideration on the proposal to give water to the mountain and the section of the city near Paradise Road.

"I can give water in six weeks to any spot," said the City Engineer, A. F. Macmillan.

It was explained that the Controller had been approached regarding the matter and had authorized Engineer Macmillan to go to Toronto to-day to consult the military officials, and see what was needed. Aldermen Tyrrell, Plunkett and Mearns will work with others on the question.

Building Inspector Whitlock, reporting to the City Engineer, said it would be an injustice to force plants the construction of the land coal, unless the factories were excluded. Ald. Macquisten, who is anxious to see the smoke nuisance removed, asked for a professional report from Engineer Macmillan, pointing out that there were few factories in the centre of the city and that there was no good reason why apartment houses and office buildings should not use hard coal.

The city hall is the worst offender, observed Ald. Macquisten, and all agreed with him. Macmillan will prepare a special report.

Geo. S. Kerr, K. C., asked the city to put a lot of land in the city, grand stand for the use of the soldiers there. The Aldermen thought the club there was a reminder and incentive to others to get busy with their knitting needles. If you cannot knit, ready made socks and cash are acceptable.

STEEL COMPANY DOUBLES ANY PROFIT IN FISCAL YEAR

Profits of Last Six Months of 1915 Were Over Three Millions.

A WISE POLICY

Company Increases Its Reserve and Strengthens Its Position.

So on, all down the line. The company has had its share of the war orders, and has been most regular in doing its work.

Information received is to the effect that total sales for January, February and March are in line with those of the last month. It is not probable that any great change will appear in the press, from time to time, however, as to what the net sales will be, as they are purely guess work, as they have been made before only by company officials who knew what they were doing. It is safe to say, only if it comes out that 1915 results may be estimated pretty accurately on the basis of the last six months of 1915.
